

2023 - 2024 OLD CAMPUS FELLOWS

Danielle de Haerne (she/her) is residing in Welch C14 with her two cats, Chubby Dubby and Miss Fluffy; they're all looking forward to serving the first-year and FroCo community on Old Campus. Danielle was in Pauli Murray College and graduated from Yale College in 2022 with a B.A. in Psychology. Danielle works in Student Affairs, serving the Office of Gender and Campus Culture (OGCC) and the Alcohol and Other Drugs Harm Reduction Initiative (AODHRI), as a second-year Student Affairs Fellow. Danielle works closely with the Communication and Consent Educators (CCEs) across all 14 residential colleges. Danielle enjoys writing fiction, indoor bouldering, playing poker, and showing off her cats (who, without fail, charm their spectators). As a Yale College student, Danielle performed valuable work for the Chaplain's Office, Yale Summer Session, Yale College Arts, and the Yale Dramatic Association. Danielle was and continues to be affiliated with the First Year Scholars (FSY) and First-Gen, Low-Income (FGLI) communities on campus. Danielle is excited for the year ahead working with the Morse, Stiles, Trumbull.

Ben Walter (he/him) is residing in Durfee A11. Ben is a Diversity Support Specialist at the Office of Diversity & Inclusion, where he supports Yale's nine staff affinity groups. He is an active member and former co-chair of the Yale LGBTQ Affinity Group. He graduated from Clark University in 2015 with a degree in Sociology and a minor in Women's and Gender Studies. He received the sociology department's Addams-Mills Award for his honors thesis on queer identity. He began his career at the Yale School of the Environment, where he worked in the business office and as a program coordinator at the Yale Forest Forum and the Environmental Leadership & Training Initiative. In his free time, he enjoys photography, running, building commander decks for Magic: the Gathering, and deep conversations with his cat, Barbar. Ben is eagerly looking forward to getting to know the Berkeley, Davenport, Jonathan Edwards, and Pierson communities.

Jordan Williams (he/him) is residing in Vanderbilt E-22. Jordan is the Farm and Café Manager at West Campus. He graduated from the University of Connecticut Class of 2017. Since then, Jordan has worked at Yale in the departments of Sustainability and Hospitality. Jordan was born and raised in New Haven, CT, but has roots in Jamaica, Alabama, Georgia, and Guinea-Bissau. He loves to travel and learn about traditional food and culture. He also loves hiking, gardening, and drumming. Jordan is very excited to be an Old Campus fellow at Vandy, and working with the students of Branford, Hopper, and Saybrook.
